

Design Reflection

Name:

Date:

Reflect on your robot design by answering the following questions:

Robot's name:

Purpose:

What problems might occur if this technology was used in a real-life setting?

How did your design solve the concern you selected?

What are the properties of the materials you selected to use in your prototype?

How could your design be modified or improved if you were to make it again or had different materials to choose from?