

Charles Sturt
University

Senior School Agriculture Teachers Professional Development Conference 2024

Growing and inspiring educators in agriculture

Get your boots dirty at Charles Sturt's inaugural agriculture teachers professional development conference.

Add value to your classroom teaching experience with our two-day event in Wagga Wagga. Take part in practical workshops and learning sessions, tour our world-class learning facilities, develop new connections and listen to keynote sessions by industry experts.

- Program aligned to the New South Wales Stage 6 Agriculture curriculum.
- Network with agriculture educators and industry leaders.
- NESA professional development accreditation hours available.

Open to all high school agriculture educators from all states and schools.

Date: Tuesday 15 – Wednesday 16 October 2024, 9am–4pm (two days PD).

Price: $150* – Includes two-day conference; lunch, morning and afternoon tea; optional welcome event (nibbles and drinks) on Monday 14 October and gala dinner on Tuesday 15 October.

Accommodation subsidies may be released closer to the event date.

Register your interest by 15 December 2023

→ study.csu.edu.au/ag-teacher-pd

*Payment required in 2024.

© 2023 Charles Sturt University - TEQSA Provider Identification: PRV12018 (Australian University). CRICOS Provider: 00005F. M2280.